Position Announcement: 2022 Legislative Fellow

Summary of position:

The Legislative Fellow will assist the External Relations Director and Community Engagement Coordinator in carrying out strategic priorities on issues related to legislation and outreach during the 2022 Idaho legislative session. This role is expected to require an average of 35-40 hours per week to be successful, including the ability to attend committee meetings at specifically scheduled times, and completing updates by a deadline. This position may be located remotely at a home office in Boise and will be required to abide by state and local COVID-19 guidelines if entering the Idaho Statehouse.

Title:	Legislative Fellow
Supervisor:	External Relations Director
Wage:	$20/hour, ~35-40 hours/week, no benefits
Classification:	Non-exempt, term limited position
Location:	Boise, ID
Date:	January-March (12-week commitment)

Duties:

- Tracking legislation: Conduct research on legislative proposals that would impact land, water and wildlife, review proposals, and attend committee hearings.
- Engagement: Assist ICL staff in preparing weekly legislative updates, alerting ICL supporters when action is necessary, organizing events and encouraging testimony related to legislative topics. In addition, the Legislative Fellow may work in coordination with partner groups to support mobilization and volunteer recruitment.
- Other: Support ICL staff with projects on an as-needed basis, as time allows.

Skills needed:

Strong analytical and communication skills required. Communication and social media experience is a plus. Background in natural resources, political science, and/or state/federal policy helpful, but not required.

What you will learn:

The overall goal of the Legislative Fellowship is to provide real-world conservation experience to those interested in learning more about the politics of conservation. The fellow will develop an in-depth understanding of the legislative process, as well as an understanding of statewide conservation and natural resource policy issues. Active students may be eligible to earn university credits.

Application Process:

Applicants should send a cover letter and resume to ICLjobs@idahoconservation.org. Please include ICL LEGISLATIVE FELLOWSHIP in the subject line. Applications will be accepted until November 8, 2021 or until a qualified candidate is identified.
